Being the youngest elephant in the herd makes Small One quite impatient to grow up. One day under the blazing African sun, when all the elephants have gathered at the watering hole to quench their thirst, she decides it's time to show her family how big she really is. Yet Small One discovers that being in a hurry to grow up isn't all that it seems, and mother knows best after all. Children will identify with Small One's feelings of wanting to mature, while adults will welcome the opportunity to reassure their own small ones in a loving environment. Sumptuous illustrations by Parker Fulton accompany this tenderhearted story of taking little steps, and learning patience. "Doris Mueller"'s articles, stories and poems have appeared in numerous children's periodicals. She lives in suburban St. Louis with her husband and miniature dachshund named Pedro. Parker Fulton's love of animals and her familiarity with elephants combine to enhance her illustrations for "Small One's Adventure." Known for her wildlife illustrations, Parker lives in Gibson Island, Maryland, where she paints to her heart's content.
